

STUDENT RELIGIOUS LIBERTIES POLICY

Innovative Career Academy

ARTICLE I STUDENT RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION

Students may engage in religious expression before, during, and after school hours in the same manner that a student is permitted to engage in secular activities or expression before, during, and after school hours.

ARTICLE II USE OF FACILITY FOR RELIGIOUS PURPOSES

Students shall have the same access to the School's facilities to conduct a meeting for the purpose of engaging in religious expression as is given to secular student groups, without regard to the content of a student's or groups expression.

ARTICLE III RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION IN COMPLETION OF STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS

Students shall have the right to engage in religious expression in the completion of homework, artwork, or other written or oral assignments. The School shall not penalize or reward a student based on the religious content of a student's work.

ARTICLE IV RELIGIOUS BELIEFS

The School shall not solicit or require a student to affirmatively ascribe to specific beliefs, affiliations, ideals, or principles concerning political movements, or ideology. The School shall not use statements of commitment to specific beliefs, affiliations, ideals, or principles concerning political movements or ideology as part of the academic evaluation of students. The School shall not solicit or require academic admission to affirmatively ascribe to, or opine about, specific beliefs, affiliations, ideals, or principles concerning political movements, or ideology.

ARTICLE V RELIGIOUS EXPRESSION DAYS

Students are permitted to be absent for up to three religious expression days (R.E.D.) each school year to take holidays for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system or participate in organized activities conducted under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or other religious or spiritual organization. The School shall not impose an academic penalty as a result of a student being absent as permitted in this policy. Students are also permitted to participate in interscholastic athletics or other extracurricular activities on days in which the student was otherwise absent for a religious expression day.

Alternative Accommodations for examinations and other academic requirements missed due to the student taking a Religious Expression day shall be given, provided that the student's parent or guardian has provided a written notice of up to three specific dates that the student will require alternative accommodations for Religious Expression. This written notice must be received by the principal within fourteen (14) school days of the student's first day of school or within fourteen (14) school days of the student's enrollment if enrolled after the start of the Academic Year.

The school principal shall approve not more than three written requests per school year from a student's parent or guardian for an excused absence under this Article V. The school principal shall approve such requests without inquiry into the sincerity of a student's religious or spiritual belief system. However, the school principal may verify a request received by contacting the parent or guardian whose signature appears on the request. If a parent or guardian disputes having signed such a request, the school principal may deny the request. Upon approval of a request, a school principal shall require the appropriate classroom teacher or teachers to schedule a time and date for an alternative examination or other academic requirement if the approved student absence creates a conflict, which may be before or after the time and date the examination or other academic requirement was originally scheduled.

The School's website must provide:

- 1) A copy of this policy, which shall include the contact information of an individual who can provide further information about the policy;
- 2) A nonexhaustive list of major religious holidays, festivals, and religious observations, which may include, Eid, Good Friday, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Passover, for which an excused absence under this section shall not be unreasonably withheld or denied.

The state superintendent will provide the School with this nonexhaustive list. Any time this policy is distributed or published, including on the School website, a statement that the list is nonexhaustive and the list may not be used to deny accommodation to a student for a holiday or festival of the student's faith or religious or spiritual belief system that does not appear on the list. Nothing in this policy, and no inclusion or exclusion of a religious holiday or festival on the list posted by the School, shall preclude a student from full and reasonable accommodations for any sincerely held religious beliefs and practices with regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system provided under this policy.

Schools shall annually convey to parents and guardians this policy, including a description of the general procedure for requesting accommodations. The manner in which the school conveys the information shall be determined at the School's discretion.

Any days excused under this section shall not be considered in determining absence hours for the purposes of parental notification under division (C)(1) of section 3321.191 of the Revised Code.

PUBLIC RECORDS POLICY

The Board of Directors recognizes that openness leads to a better informed citizenry, which leads to better government and better public policy. It is the mission and intent of the School, as a public office, to at all times fully comply with and abide by both the spirit and the letter of Ohio's Public Records Act.

Definition
A "record" is defined to include the following: A document in any format (paper or electronic) that is created, received by, or comes under the jurisdiction of the School that documents the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the School as a public office.

A "public record" is a "record" that is being kept by the School at the time a public records request is made, subject to applicable exemptions from disclosure under Ohio or federal law. The School's public records will be organized and maintained in such a way that they can be made available for inspection and copying.

Public Records Requests
Public records will be available for inspection during regular business hours. Public records will be made available for inspection promptly. Copies of public records will be made available within a reasonable period of time. "Promptly" and "reasonable" take into account the volume of records requested, the proximity of the location where the records are stored, the necessity for any legal review and redaction, and other facts and circumstances of the records request.

It is the goal of the School that all requests for public records will be acknowledged or documented in writing.

Responding to Requests
Although no specific language is required to make a request for public records, the requester must at least identify the records requested with sufficient clarity to allow the School to identify, remove, and review the records.

Requesters shall not be required to make a request in writing. Requesters shall not be required to provide his or her identity or the intended use of the requested public records. However, in accordance with Ohio law the School may ask for a written request, the requester's identity, and/or the intended use of the information requested, if (1) a written request or disclosure of identity or intended use would benefit the requester by enhancing the School's ability to identify, locate, or deliver the public records that have been requested, and (2) the requester in fact told the School that the request is not required and that the requester may decline to reveal the requester's identity or intended use.

In processing the request, the School does not have an obligation to create new records or perform a search or research for information in the School's records. An electronic record is deemed to exist as long as a computer is already programmed to produce the record through the School's standard use of writing, printing, or querying features.

Religious Expression Days Policy

The School shall reasonably accommodate the sincerely held religious beliefs and practices of individual students with regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief systems.

(A) Absences for Holidays
(1) The School will permit a student to be absent for up to three religious expression days each school year to take holidays for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system or participate in organized activities conducted under the auspices of a religious denomination, church, or other religious or spiritual organization.

Such holidays include but are not limited to: Eid, Good Friday, Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, and Passover.

This list is non-exhaustive. The School shall not unreasonably withhold or deny permission for other holidays. The School shall not deny accommodations to a student for a holiday or festival of the student's faith or religious or spiritual belief system that does not appear on this list. The inclusion or exclusion of a religious holiday or festival on this list shall not preclude a student from full and reasonable accommodations for any sincerely held religious beliefs and practices with regard to all examinations or other academic requirements and absences for reasons of faith or religious or spiritual belief system provided under section B below.

(2) The School will not impose an academic penalty as a result of a student being absent as permitted pursuant to this policy. The School will also permit students to participate in extracurricular activities on days in which the student was otherwise absent for a religious expression day under this policy.

(B) Alternative Accommodations
(1) The School will provide students with alternative accommodations with regard to examinations and other academic requirements missed due to an absence pursuant to this policy if not later than fourteen school days after the first day of school, or fourteen school days after the date of enrollment for a student who transfers to or enrolls in the School after the first day of school, the parent or guardian of a student provides the School principal with written notice of up to three specific dates for which alternative accommodations are requested, if an absence approved under this policy conflicts with an examination or other academic requirement on that date.

Upon approval of a request that satisfies this Section (B)(1) the principal shall require the appropriate classroom teacher or teachers to schedule a time and date for an alternative examination or other academic requirement if the approved student absence creates a conflict, which may be before or after the time and date the examination or other academic requirement was originally scheduled.
